

A scary night in the sea

One normal night an armed merchant ship was sailing through the Atlantic to Florida. But little did he know he was sailing through a very dangerous place the Caribbean.

So when no one was looking...

BANG! A cannon shot the ship. Captain Maynard was trembling, First mate George's blazing blond hair stood on end and soldier Edward's heart was pounding as fast as lightning.

It turns out a pirate ship was looting the ship! "To battle!" said captain Maynard trembling but it was too late the pirate ship has stolen all of their goods!

But when everything looked over NOT 1, NOT 2, NOT 3, NOT 4, NOT 5 BUT 6 ships came to help. "Need help?" said Captain Anderson and they all marched into victory! But when they thought the pirates died, a pirate hid in deck ready for soldier Roberts and when he came in SWING! Edward is now bleeding! "AAAAAH" screamed soldier Edward and they fought to death but of course Edward won.
